

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

SATURDAY EVENING SEPT., 11, 1886.

Now on the real fight.

This fight must be a warm one from now on.

The Democrats mean business, and are going in to redeem the Ninth.

Let the Democratic warriors unashamed their swords now and go in to win.

W. M. FINLEY is now managing editor of the Louisville Post, with Theodore F. Bristol as his associate.

Let every Democrat remember from now on that the fires must be kept burning on every hill, and the fight waged in every valley of this district.

The success of the party in this district is what every Democrat should now work for. Every vote must be polled in November, and polled for the nominee.

We most respectfully remind the Louisville Post that the Augusta Convention wound up harmoniously. Judge Wall's opponents pledged him their hearty support.

CAPTAIN SAM BRYANT, of Augusta, has sued the Sheriff of Hamilton County, O., for $10,000 damages for false imprisonment, and his attorney is confident of winning the suit.

The Mercury of Carlisle suggested some time ago an old-fashion barbecue as soon as the Democratic nominee was named. We now have our standard-bearer, and let's have the barbecue.

There is no doubt the Ninth district is Democratic by a large majority. All that is necessary is for the Democratic phalanx to face their foe with a firm front and fight to the finish, and victory will be ours.

An exchange says there's a good prospect of Missouri's being pretty well ruled before long at Washington. She aided before her first in the Senate and is thinking of sending her overall to Congress.

Should the convention nominate Judge Savage the enemy will find in November that never in the past were there so many Savage men in this land as now, and should Judge Wall be nominated they will wake up after the vote is counted only to find their man buried under a stone-Wall-Bracken Chronicle.

The Tenth District of Kentucky, lying in the eastern part of the State and represented in Congress by the Hon. William P. Taulbee, is remarkable for the homogeneous character of its population. It consists of twenty counties, with an aggregate population at the last census of about 152,000. In all of the twenty counties there are only 344 men, women, and children of foreign birth. Most of these live in the towns of Winchester and Mt. Sterling. In sixteen counties, with a population of 105,656, there are only 61 foreign-born people. In ten counties, with a population of 75,980, there are only 15 foreign-born. In five counties, out of 30,305 people, there are only 3 whose nativity is not American. Bell, Breathitt, Letcher, Magoffin, Perry, and Wolfe counties have each only one foreign-born resident; Leslie and Harlan counties have none.—New York Sun.

JUDGE WALL is the choice of the Democrats of this district for Congress. He is no longer the representative of one county or one section. He is the nominee of the party, and as such deserves a warm and enthusiastic support from every member of the party. Party success in November is what every one should now work for. Defeat in November would be not a defeat of Judge Wall alone, but of the party he represents. Past differences should be forgotten, and every one should labor for this on for victory.

Judge Wall is in the prime of life, and may be relied upon to do his part of the work, and do it well. As a speaker, he is pleasant and effective, and will hold his own in the fight to be made. He is an earnest worker in whatever he undertakes, and has been successful in the practice of his profession.

Another thing, he has never been defeated in any of the political contests he has fought in the past. This shows his strength at home, and he has only to be known throughout the district to insure his success in November. Nothing can be said against his public and private life. His record is a clean one, and with him in Congress the district will have a sober, industrious and able Representative. Democrats of the district, seek that you do your duty from now on, and the Ninth will be redeemed in November.

WHOLESALE POISONING.

The Fate of Fifty People Who Ate Chicken That Was Cooked in a Copper Kettle, DECATUR, Ill., Sept. 11.—About fifty people were mysteriously poisoned at a country wedding about five miles west of here, Wednesday night, and yesterday all the available physicians were hard at work attending the afflicted persons, who are retching and vomiting violently. Thomas W. Jacobs and Miss Alice Glasgow were married at the house of the bride's father. Supper was served at 9 o'clock, and included chicken salad, boiled chicken, and all ate heartily. An hour later the bride and groom were taken sick, manifesting symptoms of having been poisoned. Part of the company had left, but those remaining were also taken sick.

Great fright ensued. The mother of the groom and others were brought to Decatur, the parties were so much exhausted that they had to be carried into houses before reaching the physician's house. It has been learned that the chickens were cooked and served in a big copper kettle. It is supposed the salt caused the metal to corrode and mix with the chicken. The people are all quite sick yet, but the doctors do not apprehend the fatal termination of any of the cases.

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION.

A Locomotive Boiler Gave Off at Indianapolis With Destructive Results.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 11.—Just after a passenger train on the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Indianapolis road had entered the city in the evening the boiler of the locomotive exploded with such terrific force that not a vestige of the engine was left standing. The cab was carried through the air a distance of 300 yards, and fell in a vacant lot. A piece of one of the driving wheels fell through the roof of a house 300 yards away and fragments were thrown in all directions for a distance of two squares.

On a neighboring telegraph wire were found in place the clothes of the engineer and fireman, which had been placed under the seat in the cab. All the tracks and ties under the engine were driven into the ground. The engineer was not in the locomotive at the time of the explosion, and the escape of the fireman, Frank Coburn, was miraculous, as besides a slight scald about his shoulders, he received no other injuries than a severe shock from falling violently after being blown several feet into the air.

The Temperance Fight at Alliance.

ALLIANCE, O., Sept. 11.—The cases of the saloon keepers arrested for violating the prohibitory ordinance, set for a hearing this morning have been postponed by Mayor Coxon until Monday. This was done so as to give the saloon keepers a chance to apply for an injunction. Miller & Hoerners, attorneys of the liquor league of Stark county, have filed a petition in the United States circuit court of Cleveland for an injunction restraining the authorities from enforcing the law. In the interim the saloon keepers have agreed to keep closed. City Solicitor Horner appears for the town to show cause why the injunction should not be granted.

The Empire State Uninjured.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—The Empire State, of Providence, which ran ashore off Sandy Hook beach in the fog, was floated off and towed to this city. She is apparently undamaged, and left for Boston.

Another Peril from Boloxi.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 11.—Dr. J. B. Godfrey, of the Marine Hospital, has returned from Boloxi. He says the fever there was malarial, due to impure water and bad sanitation, and that there has been no yellow fever there.

Mounted Sword Contest.

BOSTON, Sept. 11.—The mounted sword contest at Oak Island between Duncan C. Ross and Sergt. Charles Walsh, was won by Ross. Ross has been backed to fight Ross again for $1,000 and the championship.

Rheumatism

Though painful and wearing almost beyond endurance, it is not a dangerous disease if treated in time. Perhaps no other disease has so baffled the efforts of science and medicine as this, but had a remedy been discovered in time, it would have been cured. Rheumatism is a disease which CURE KIDNEY PILLS, and is heartily endorsed by many of the Leading Physicians.
